THE ACELL TO MORE COD-LIVER OIL. SYRUP OF TODIZED HORFE RADISH of GRIMADLY and Co., Apothecaries and chemists, 7, Rue de la euillade, Paris. According to the certificates of the physicians of the Paris Hospitals, detail. ed in the prospectus, and with the approbation of several Academics, this Syrup is employed with the greatest success in place of Cod-liver Oil to which it is really superior. It cures diseases of the chest, serofula, lymphatic disorders, green nickness, muscular atony, and loss of appetite. at regenerates the constitution by purifying the Blood, and is, in a word the most powerful depusative known. It never fatigues the stomach and bowels like the iodide of potassium and the iodide of iron, and is administered with the groatest of ficuor to young children subject to humours or obstruction of the glands. Dr. Cazenave, of Saint Louis hospital, Paris, recommends it particularly in cutaneous diseases conjointly with the bills which bear his name. The" Times" Richmond Correspondent Jugust 30 .- It may betohin the recollection of some of your readers that in a recent letter ! estimated the murtality on both sides consequent upon this war as being at the rate of 1,000 lives every 24 hours. There are many to whom this estimate will appear extravagant. I regret to say that increased thought and inquiry have only served to convince me that it is not far from the mark. I need hardly say that by far the largest portion of those who perish fall victims to disease. $50 per month. Think of the immensity of this war; of the numherless bodies of men scattered in unbealthy garrisons over the vast area of Secessia, and some conception of the weste of human life (sacrificed A ished, containing Six Booms, Bath Rooms, to the Moloch of this war ne less than if cut short and Servants' Diffices of Commanding the whole by the bullet) may be formed. As an item I may view of the harbour and town, and delightfully mention that the deaths among the Yankes pri- situated behind the Albany, Southward of Mr. voners now hold in the South average 150 per diem. W. H. ALEXANDER's Residence. The deaths of Confederates held captive in the North must be on something of the same scale, rate, though possibly rather less numerous, as the Northern climate is healthier in summer. Here we laye 300 deaths (or thereabouts) occuring every 24 hours among the prisoners alone. It is not much of a stratch to conceive that each day's fighling, when there are six large armies in the field. to wit, Lee's and Grant's, Hood's, and Shermans, Enriv's and Sharidana), not to prention countless. desultory bodies of combatanta, adds 700 men to the list of perinhing victims. The picture of this fair American continent; which four years ago any nian to whom human happiness and prosperity are dear might have delighted to contemplate; is one from which an Apolicyn would at this moment recoil with shuddering. What pen is there to write, what eye to witness the unnum bered ghasty deeds of horror which somewhere or other in the yast and voiceless solitudes of Dixie the sun daily looks down pon? "The "Spectator" makes the following remarks on the Presidential Ellection. General M'Ciellan has accepted the nomination of the Chicago Convention, but in terms which pledge him as irrevocably as Mr. Lincoln to the preservation of the Union at all hazards. "The existence of more than one Government," he says, over the region which once owned our flag is incompatible with the peace, the power, and the hap-pinces of the people." He adds—very significan-ily to those who have studied the history of those Northern statesmen who have been the tools of the South-"The Union was originally formed for the exercise of a spirit of conciliation and compromise

To restore and preserve it; the same spirit must prevail in our councils and in the hearts of the people. In other words, General M. Clellan is as much of a Unionist at all hazards us Mr. Lincoln; but his method for securing Union is the old one .- prostration before the South. The Baltimore platform pledges Mr. Lincoln to doubl in his power to uproot for ever the cause of war-slavery; General M'Clellan is self-pledged to offer any sop t the South it will accept. And it does not strike us as creditable even to the understanding of the North that in such circumstances the Democratio

A very remarkable conversation between Mr. incoln and Judge Mills of Wisconsin shows how lucidly as well as honestly Mr. Lincoln recognizes the true issue between himself and the Democrate. "There is no programme," he said, "offethat must regult in the permanent destruction of the Union." "There are now in the service of the United States near 200,000 able-bodied coloured men, most of them under arms, defending and acquiring Union territory.
